Inclement Weather: Please contact the hike leader

SUNDAY, MAY 1 SHORT HIKE (4 MILES): This will be a hike at Muddy Run Park, there are beautiful views of the reservoir and the surrounding areas. Hopefully, we may see deer and of course the ever-present Canada geese and if we are lucky other critters. There may be muddy areas and other obstacles so wear good boots and bring a snack. As an added attraction bring a scraper to rid us of the lantern fly.

Meeting Location: Muddy Run Park boat ramp parking lot
Hike Leader: Mike Ruby and Chris Schwankl: Phone number: 717-819

Departure Time: 1:30 PM
Carpool Fee: N/A

SUNDAY, MAY 8 SHORT HIKE (4 MILES): Join me for a leisurely hike along the shores of Lake Williams. The Lake has taken on a new look this spring which you should find interesting.

Meeting Location: Lake Williams parking area, In Jacobus turn onto Water Street and go down the hill. Turn right into parking area. Park near the rest room.
Hike Leaders: Sarah and Lou Tateosian 717-741-2652

Meeting Time: 1:30 PM
Carpool Fee: N/A

SUNDAY, MAY 15 MEDIUM HIKE (7 – 8 MILES): Sunset Rocks = Medium lollipop hike about 7-8 miles starting at Pine Grove Furnace State Park, following the AT to Toms Shelter (will have short snack break here) and returning via Sunset Rocks Trail. There will be some rock scrambling, views, and rocky steep hills. We may spot timber rattlesnakes! This is a moderate hike. Hiking boots are best, poles, water, snacks. Afterwards, plan to join former hike members Pat and Neal (visiting from Colorado) for a picnic and to reminisce! Must RSVP by Thursday 5/12 for picnic to Kim Herbst at 717-887-4462 or kberly124@comcast.net so she can coordinate food dishes. Location of picnic will be a surprise for those who attend! York Hike Club members who do not wish to hike but want to visit with Pat and Neal, may meet at Pine Grove around 1 PM. Reminder! You will still need to RSVP for picnic.

Meeting Location: Pine Grove State Park (near the bathrooms)

Hike Leader: Kim Shue, 717-688-5142
